Wilson Hired as Public Information Officer for Hall County Tax Office

Jody Wilson

Gainesville, GA. (February 3, 2025) - The Office of the Hall County Tax Commissioner has hired Jody Wilson as Public Information Officer (PIO) effective February 10.

“The PIO role, funded through fees from tax collections, will enhance education through tools like video, enhanced graphics, and social media, ensuring we keep the public informed on important tax topics and changes such as HB 581 Property Tax Relief and Reform for Georgians,” said Commissioner Darla Eden. “Mr. Wilson’s expertise in media relations and public outreach will be invaluable in this position.”

Wilson, a 2006 Summa Cum Laude graduate of Piedmont University (Piedmont College), holds a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing. He also attended the University of North Georgia (Gainesville College).

Most recently, Wilson served as the Director of Alumni Engagement at Riverside Preparatory Academy (Riverside Military Academy). During his seven-plus years at the Academy, he was dedicated to fostering alumni engagement, streamlining communication, and ensuring the institution’s brand and messaging upheld its prestigious standards.

“I’m excited about the opportunity to give back by joining the Office of the Tax Commissioner,” Wilson said. “Hall County has always held a special place in my heart, and I look forward to getting to know the community better while also contributing my skills to further its rise as a leader among Georgia’s communities.”

Wilson resides in Demorest with his wife, Catherine, and twin boys, Jack and Rowan.
