Real property assessment notices to be mailed Monday, July 6

The Hall County Tax Assessors' Office will mail the 2026 Notice of Assessments on Monday, July 6, to all real and personal property owners. As required by state law, this annual notice will include a written explanation of the value of taxable property.

Real property consists of land and any improvements thereon, while Personal Property consists of boats, personal watercraft, aircraft, businesses and manufacturers.

Due to the passing of Senate Bill 566, a Georgia property tax reform law that significantly changes how local governments calculate and communicate ad valorem property taxes, this year's Notice of Assessments will look different than years prior.

2026 Notice of Assessments will no longer include estimated tax amounts; however, tax savings estimates will be included. To estimate property taxes, use the tools and resources available online at qPublic.net. For questions, please contact the Hall County Tax Assessor's Office.

If you have not received your assessment notice within a reasonable amount of time from Monday, July 6, you may do one of the following:

- Go online to qPublic Hall County, locate your property, scroll to the bottom of the page and select 2026 Assessment Notice (PDF) to access your 2026 Notice of Assessment.
- Contact the Tax Assessors' Office at 770-531-6720 to ensure the correct mailing address is on file.
- Go online to qPublic Hall County and select "Change of Address" if your address has changed.

Property owners will have 45 days from the date of the notice to file an appeal online at qPublic Hall County, via U.S. mail or in person. Only the USPS postmark can be used to determine the timeliness of any appeals mailed close to the deadline. Appeal information, interactive appeal forms and FAQs can be found on the Tax Assessors' Office page online at www.hallcounty.org.

All homestead exemptions can still be applied until the end of the 45-day appeal window. To qualify for the exemption for 2026, you must own and live in the house as of Jan. 1, 2026, and meet all other qualifications, such as age requirements, if applicable to the exemption for which you are applying.

Please note: The Board of Tax Assessors has no authority to extend appeal deadlines.

The Hall County Board of Tax Assessors' Office may be reached via e-mail at assessor@hallcounty.org, by phone at 770-531-6720, or in person at the Hall County Government Center, located at 2875 Browns Bridge Road in Gainesville.

²² The estimated tax savings under the 2009 Forgiveness, Credit, and Preferential Treatment is determined by totaling the dollar value of any mortgage, credit, or preferential treatment applied to your property for 2009 using the 2007 savings rates for taxing authorities and types. All 2009 mortgage, credit, or preferential treatment listed include all taxing authorities, and each estimate may not reflect the total savings provided on the 2009 tax bill.
